

The S. D. Vidya School

Jagadhri Road, Ambala Cantt

List of Activities

Month: November

Session 2024-2025

Grade - Pre-KG to II

S.No.	Month	Name of the Activity with Description	Photograph
1.	November	Pretend Play : Courtroom Grade II It's a great way for children to explore their interests, use their imaginations, and have a good time! Pretend play is an integral part of child development.
2.	November	Nukkad Natak: Grade II Food Students communicated the message that we all should be mindful of the perishable food and plan meals to fit in with their 'use-by' dates. Grade I Orchid Say no to Polythene The event's primary motive was to spread awareness among children about the harmful effects of plastic, & ways to reduce it, as plastic.

3.	November	Show and Tell Activity Activity was conducted on theme: Life Around Us and there were four topics based on insects like butterfly, ladybug, ant and honeybee. It was really a very good experience for kids as they get stage at very small age and it also boost confidence level of kids to show their talent.
----	----------	--

4.	November	Pretend Play: - LKG Lotus The Railway Station (SDV Junction) To make children aware of proper behavior and safety at a railway station, ensuring they understand the importance of staying safe in crowded areas. Important reminders for children at a railway station: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Always stay close to their parents and never run on the platform. ● Avoid talking to strangers or accepting help from them.
----	----------	---

5.	November	Academic League Grade I and Grade II <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * To make the children more confident. * To give an experiential learning to the children. * Competitions build soft skills. * Competitions help students find out what are their strengths. * By going beyond the curriculum, competitions encourage a lifelong love of learning
----	----------	---

6.	November	Grade I Primrose Pretend play (फल और सब्जियाँ) Identifying different fruits and vegetables and their properties provides children with opportunities to explore and develop an interest in different foods. This assists with the development of life-long healthy eating habits.
7.	November	Pretend Play: “Bus Stand” To make the children aware about the functioning of the bus stand. *To make the children more confident. *To give an experiential learning to the children. Pretend Play is a teaching technique that involves students taking on roles and acting them out in a simulated real-world situation. It can be a powerful learning experience that helps students develop skills like empathy, critical thinking, and communication. “Hospital” Pretend play can help children express concerns or feelings about their care, which can be comforting and familiar. Pretend play helps children understand the world around them and how things work.

8.	November	Circle Time Emotional development Children learn to manage their feelings, recognize their identity, and develop self-esteem. They also feel safe and comfortable, which can reduce anxiety and stress. Language development Children learn to verbalize and pronounce words, and imitate sounds from their teachers and classmates.
9.	November	Quiz – Theme: Life Around Us A quiz based on the theme “Life Around Us” was conducted for the LKG students. All the children participated enthusiastically, showcasing their curiosity and knowledge. After an engaging preliminary round, one team from each section advanced to the final round. In an exciting finish, the team from LKG Pansy emerged as the winners of the quiz.	